

Coach of the Year Award

The Coach of the Year Award recognises the important work done for sports people within the Tonbridge and Malling borough.

Although it is not a condition that individual nominees reside in the Tonbridge and Malling borough, they MUST be involved with coaching in a sports club, organisation, or school within the borough.

Nominations will only be accepted by the nominator, and not by the nominee themselves. Nominations must be submitted by 1st February 2009.

Please check that the coach that you are nominating is willing to be put forward for the Coach of the Year Award.

Selection Criteria

Judging will be based on

- Coaching qualifications
- Commitment to coaching over the past 12 months
- Commitment to personal development
- Improved performance as a result of coaching
- Position held within the club.

Nominees Commitment

Judging will be based on nominees involvement within

- Competitions
- Workshops
- Seminars
- Conferences
- Establishing junior sections
- Encouraging others to take up coaching
