Comments
As a car user, I have problems with residents cars parking on the corner of Bancroft Road, and opposite. Junction of West Street. A blind spot is created, causing drivers to edge out into the main road to check on-coming traffic. yellow lines a very good idea. Thank ya.

 — Proposed "No waiting at any time" (double yellow lines)

Parking right to the corner obstructs visibility of oncoming traffic

New double yellow lines to prevent obstructive parking near and opposite an access

Comments
whilst it should be obvious that parking outside the entrance of a drive would make it very difficult to enter/exit the property it is a regular nuisance to us. I would also highlight that parking in the top right-hand corner of Bancroft Rd/West St means it is impossible to see oncoming traffic when trying to exit Bancroft Rd, which is very likely to lead to an accident at some point.

Subject: Yellow lines bancroft road

20/8/18

I am in favour of the yellow lines being put in place , please also take into consideration the occupant at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] has a disabled bay which is not shown on the diagram , also I feel that yellow lines should be put at the end of bancroft road adjacent to west Street as people are constantly parking on the corner and I have experienced many near misses having to pull out around vehicles.

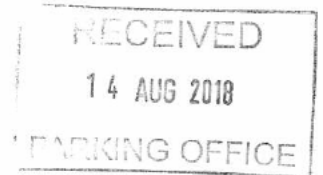

Many thanks

Comments
There are sufficient parking spaces in the cul-de-sac and opposite the garages for anyone visiting Bancroft Road. The proposed yellow lines are only a small section of the road which will be a great advantage to anyone visiting me as access will then be available. The parking has deteriorated over the past few years.
